

Love is an amazing feeling. An individual with a caring heart is consistently prepared to help other people with no desire. Love is the need of each person since the day of birth. Love associates the two souls everlastingly and makes the world a beautiful spot for them. Without a doubt, Love is divine. Love needs to rest in our actions, not in our words only. Without love, we are just a structure filled with noise, emptiness, and meaninglessness. The quality of love makes you selfless automatically and rises you above other living beings. The death is for sure, but we can stay alive after the death in the hearts of those who love us. Love purifies our soul and connects with God. According to a popular proverb, "The love has the power to convert a devil to a human". The love is enough alone to open all the nervousness of emotions and make us look at the world from the other's perspective. Love is divine, and its power can bless all of us. Having mutual love is very important for maintaining any relationship for a long time. True love is always priceless and selfless. The one who loves you will accept you without any conditions and will not expect you to be perfect. He/she will always try to keep you happy with all the means he/she has.
