

About Hate

It is not appropriate to make or share hateful or critical comments. Such comments can be hurtful and damaging to the person being targeted and can contribute to a negative and unhealthy culture. It is important to speak and interact with others in a respectful and kind manner. It is never okay to make derogatory or hurtful comments about someone or to express hateful or discriminatory views.